

Three artworks of X3 Studios will be published in “The Design And Design Book Of The Year”

Timișoara, May 26th 2008 – Three artworks of X3 Studios, an interactive design studio, were selected to be published in “The Design And Design Book Of The Year”.

Design and Design – www.designanddesign.com – is an online gallery, which showcases one piece of work a day from two design categories, graphic design and product design. All selected works will be published in “The Design and Design Book of The Year”.

Up to the present moment, X3 Studios was selected for the graphic design category with three artworks: Poesis Hotel, X3 Studios and D`arc cafe.

Ștefan Szakal, Creative Director at X3 Studios: “We appreciate the recognition we gained for these print projects. The creative process involved in each one of them was very challenging and involved taking a new approach every time, just as we always try to. The fact that we, as an interactive design studio, are appreciated for print artwork only proves that innovation and creativity are not bound to the communication channels one chooses to use.”

The 2008 edition of “The Design And Design Book Of The Year” will include 730 winning artworks of the year.
